

Rocky

Rocky comes from the Humboldt region of California. He was being rehabilitated when he bit a neighbor. Because the rehabilitators had allowed the raccoon to come in contact with people, the California Dept. of Fish and Wildlife removed it and sent it to another region after it completed its quarantine period. Eventually it was placed at Critter Creek.

